

Non Permanent Scientific Technician 2
Fish Program, Science Division
Dayton, Washington, Columbia County

Opens: August 18, 2010.....Closes: August 27, 2010

There is currently 1 - 3 Month Non Permanent Scientific Technician 2 employment opportunity with the Fish Program, Science Division located in Dayton, Washington, Columbia County.

Position: Scientific Technician 2

Duration: 3 months

Anticipated Start / End Date, varies by position: September 16, 2010; latest ending date is December 15, 2010

Salary: $2426.00 - $3135.00 Range 36

Benefits: There are no benefits associated with this position.

Work schedule: Flexible (24/7) most likely 4 x 10's, 40 hours per week with exceptions for State legislated furloughs. Working all weekends and holidays during the time frame will be necessary to complete objectives.

Responsibilities:

This position assists a multi-agency team that samples the summer steelhead sport fishery in SE Washington. Specifically, this individual will conduct creel surveys from the mouth of the Snake River to Little Goose Dam, and the Tucannon River, to recover coded-wire tags from captured steelhead or fall Chinook salmon. Limited data entry in the Microsoft Excel may be required. The position requires a valid driver's license.

HOW TO APPLY:

On or before August 27, 2010, submit a complete and up-to-date, Washington State Job Application (Resume may be included but not in place of State application) to : Joe Bumgarner either by e-mail Joseph.Bumgarner@dfw.wa.gov or fax to 509 382-2427.